Breach of child safe policy

- Failure to disclose – all adults in Australia with a reasonable belief that an adult has committed a sexual offence against a child have an obligation to report that information to the police
- Failure to protect – key management personnel will commit an offence if they know of a substantial risk of child sexual abuse and have the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk, but negligently fail to do so
- Breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action; however, a serious breach may be deemed a criminal offence under relevant legislation
